

MOVING TO BRITISH COLUMBIA

— A GUIDE FOR NEWCOMERS —

Interior Health would like to recognize and acknowledge the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territories of the Dākelh Dené, Ktunaxa, Nlaka'pamux, Secwépemc, St'át'imc, Syilx, and Tŝilhqot'in Nations, where we live, learn, collaborate and work together.

INTERIOR HEALTH

Who are we?

Interior Health was established as one of five geographically-based health authorities in 2001 by the Government of British Columbia. We are responsible for ensuring publicly-funded health services are provided to the people of the southern interior.

Guided by our core values of compassion, quality, safety, and integrity, we continually strive to live out our overarching vision - health and well-being for all.

Where are we located?

Interior Health is located in the Southern Interior of British Columbia. IH serves a large geographic area covering almost 216,000 square kilometers and includes larger cities as well as a multitude of more rural and remote communities. The health authority is split into four areas which include Thompson Cariboo Shuswap, Okanagan, Kootenay Boundary, and East Kootenay.

Does Interior Health offer relocation allowance?

Permanent and temporary placements may be eligible for financial relocation assistance to help you and your family with the move. Details should be discussed with the hiring manager or clinical recruitment specialist prior to accepting the offer and any relocation provided will require a 24-month return of service. Casual hires are not eligible for this program.

What about a signing bonus?

Priority occupation health-care workers filling eligible positions will receive up to $20,000 in rural and remote communities and up to $15,000 in difficult-to-fill vacancies in urban and metropolitan communities. Eligible health-care workers will be required to sign a two-year return-of-service agreement. Learn more.

What is the Provincial Rural Retention Incentive?

This incentive provides up to $2,000 per quarter, pro-rated to productive hours, to health-care workers working in eligible rural and remote communities to a maximum of $8,000 per year. Details should be discussed with the hiring manager or recruiter prior to accepting the offer.

How can I find accommodation?

Kijiji, Facebook Marketplace, and Rentfaster.ca are good places to start your search for rental properties. However, Castanet is a local news site that covers the Okanagan and Kamloops. Castanet does have a classified section that lists real estate and rentals.

Are there any additional resources available?

Welcome BC by the Ministry of Jobs, Tourism and Skills Training has many valuable resources, such as a Newcomer's Guide, for people looking to relocate to British Columbia.
